Dear Members of the PCA Community,

This past week has been one of change and adaptation as many of you have returned to your families and we have transitioned to on-line learning in response to the restrictions put into place to curb the spread of COVID-19 in France. Wherever you are in the world your normal routines have been impacted. The necessary changes to our daily habits are not always easy to cope with, and I have been impressed by the numerous displays of resilience and creativity within our community. You have invented alternative modes of communicating, drawing, playing, working and even cooking together. Keep this vibrant and positive spirit alive- and keep in touch!
